A bill to ensure proper regulation of military-style assault weapons and high-capacity ammunition feeding devices.
Confronting Assault Weapons in Society

More than eight years have passed since the federal Assault Weapons Ban on military-style firearms expired in 2004. Since then, more than 350 people have been killed and more than 450 injured by these weapons.

Towns like Newtown, Aurora and Tucson are now known for the mass shootings that shocked the nation. Mass murders in these towns and others across America demonstrate all too clearly the need to regulate deadly assault weapons and high-capacity ammunition magazines.

On January 24, 2013, we gathered to introduce a new Assault Weapons Ban of 2013. This legislation, stronger than the 1994 bill, has two primary goals:

• First, halt the sale, manufacture, transfer and importation of 157 of the most commonly-owned military-style assault weapons and ban an additional group of assault weapons that are particularly lethal because they can accept a detachable ammunition magazine and have one or more military characteristics.

• Second, ban large-capacity magazines and other ammunition feeding devices that hold more than 10 rounds of ammunition. These devices allow shooters to fire numerous rounds in rapid succession without having to reload.

We firmly believe that weapons designed for war have no place on the streets of a civilized society. We must enforce existing law and enact commonsense measures to stop the proliferation of military-style assault weapons while protecting the rights of law-abiding citizens who use guns for hunting, household defense or legitimate recreational purposes.

This is critical if we are to make the streets of America safer. Please learn more about this issue and get involved.

Dianne Feinstein

What the Assault Weapons Ban of 2013 Does

Assault Weapons - Bans the sale, transfer, manufacture and importation of:

- 157 specifically-named weapons including the Bushmaster, Smith & Wesson M&P15, AK-47, Streetsweeper and others (list begins on page 14);
- All semiautomatic rifles and handguns that can accept a detachable magazine and have at least one military feature;
- All semiautomatic rifles and handguns that have a fixed magazine with the capacity to accept more than 10 rounds or are belt fed;
- All semiautomatic shotguns that have a detachable magazine, revolving cylinder, fixed magazine capable of accepting more than 5 rounds or at least one military feature.

High-Capacity Magazines - Bans the sale, transfer, manufacture and importation of:

- All ammunition feeding devices (magazines, strips and drums) capable of accepting more than 10 rounds.

Aftermarket Modifications and Workarounds - Bans:

- Bump or slide fire stocks, which are modified stocks that allow semi-automatic weapons to fire at rates similar to fully automatic machine guns.
- So-called “bullet buttons” that allow the rapid replacement of ammunition magazines, frequently used as a workaround to prohibitions on detachable magazines.
- Thumbhole stocks, a type of stock that was created as a workaround to avoid prohibitions on pistol grips.

Weapons Excluded from the Bill - Protects the Following Weapons:

- Any weapon that is lawfully possessed at the date of the bill’s enactment;
- 2,200 legitimate hunting and sporting rifles and shotguns are excluded from the bill by specific make and model (list begins on page 16);
- Any gun manually operated by a bolt, pump, lever or slide action;
- Semiautomatic assault weapons used by military, law enforcement and retired law enforcement; and
- Antique weapons.
Requiring background checks on assault weapon transfers

The Assault Weapons Ban only prohibits assault weapons not yet manufactured. However, an estimated 18 million to 35 million assault weapons have already been legally manufactured.

The Justice Department estimates that loopholes allow approximately 40% of these items to be transferred to new owners without background checks. That means 7 million to 14 million assault weapons are owned by individuals who have not undergone background checks.

The Assault Weapon Ban closes these dangerous loopholes by requiring background checks on all transfers of assault weapons covered by the legislation including sale, trade, gift, etc.

Safeguarding existing weapons and high-capacity magazines

The Assault Weapons Ban requires that grandfathered assault weapons be stored safely using a secure gun storage or safety device to keep them away from criminals and the mentally ill. The bill also prohibits the sale or transfer of high-capacity ammunition feeding devices that are currently in existence.

Stopping “copycat” guns

The bill bans all semiautomatic assault weapons with detachable magazines and one or more military characteristics. Those military characteristics are:

RIFLES
- Pistol grip
- Forward grip
- Folding, telescoping or detachable stock
- Grenade or rocket launcher
- Barrel shroud
- Threaded barrel

PISTOLS
- Threaded barrel
- Second pistol grip
- Barrel shroud
- Detachable magazine capacity outside of the pistol grip
- Semiautomatic version of an automatic firearm

SHOTGUNS
- Folding, telescoping or detachable stock
- Pistol grip
- Fixed magazine capacity greater than five rounds
- Detachable magazine capacity
- Forward grip
- Grenade launcher or rocket launcher

“Military-style assault weapons have no purpose but to kill many people quickly, threatening our communities’ most public places—from malls and movie theaters, to schools and street corners. By taking the basic steps of requiring every gun buyer to get a background check, and limiting military style weapons, we can make our communities safer—and save many of the 33 people who are killed with guns each and every day in America.”

- New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg

“We know that preventing gun violence—whether it is a mass shooting in a school or a murder on a street corner—will take much more than strengthening our gun laws. ...But strengthening our gun laws should not have to wait for these other actions to occur. The time for action is now!”

“…we have witnessed the violent effects of gun violence for too long—both in our schools and in our neighborhoods. The tragic massacre at Sandy Hook Elementary must be a galvanizing moment to change this.”

Presidents who have supported a ban on assault weapons

- President Barack Obama called for reinstatement of the ban as part of his plan to reduce gun violence announced on January 16, 2013.

- President George W. Bush supported the ban. At an October 2004 presidential debate, he said, “We ought to extend the assault weapons ban.”

- 2012 Republican presidential nominee Mitt Romney signed an assault weapons ban into law as governor of Massachusetts.

The following letter was sent to the House of Representatives by Presidents Ford, Carter and Reagan supporting a ban on military-style assault weapons:

May 3, 1994

To Members of the U.S. House of Representatives:

We are writing to urge your support for a ban on the domestic manufacture of military-style assault weapons. This is a matter of vital importance to the public safety. Although assault weapons account for less than 1% of the guns in circulation, they account for nearly 10% of the guns traced to crime.

Every major law enforcement organization in America and dozens of leading labor, medical, religious, civil rights and civic groups support such a ban. Most importantly, poll after poll shows that the American public overwhelmingly support a ban on assault weapons. A 1993 CNN/USA Today/Gallup Poll found that 77% of Americans support a ban on the manufacture, sale, and possession of semi-automatic assault guns, such as the AK-47.

The 1989 import ban resulted in an impressive 40% drop in imported assault weapons traced to crime between 1989 and 1991, but the killing continues. Last year, a killer armed with two TEC9s killed eight people at a San Francisco law firm and wounded several others. During the past five years, more than 40 law enforcement officers have been killed or wounded in the line of duty by an assault weapon.

While we recognize that assault weapon legislation will not stop all assault weapon crime, statistics prove that we can dry up the supply of these guns, making them less accessible to criminals. We urge you to listen to the American public and to the law enforcement community and support a ban on the further manufacture of these weapons.

Sincerely,

Gerald R. Ford  Jimmy Carter  Ronald Reagan
Assault weapons and high-capacity magazines
destroy families, communities

Since the Assault Weapons Ban expired in 2004, more than 350 people have been killed and more than 450 injured by military-style assault weapons. Below are a few recent examples of the horrific acts that have been committed with these weapons:

- Newtown, Conn.—On December 14, 2012, 26 people were killed, including 20 children, when a gunman opened fire at Sandy Hook Elementary School. The gunman was armed with a Bushmaster semiautomatic assault rifle and other firearms.

- Oak Creek, Wis.—On August 5, 2012, six worshippers were killed and three injured when a gunman opened fire at a Sikh temple. The gunman was armed with a handgun and three 19-round magazines.

- Aurora, Colo.—On July 20, 2012, 12 people were killed and 58 injured when a gunman opened fire in a movie theater. He used a Smith & Wesson M&P15 semiautomatic assault-style rifle and other firearms. The assault rifle was fed by a 100-round ammunition drum. Had the drum not malfunctioned after 30 rounds had been fired, the shooter would likely have caused even more carnage.

- Tuscaloosa, Ala.—On July 7, 2012, 17 people were injured in a shooting at a bar. The gunman used an AK-47 assault rifle.

- Cupertino, Calif.—On October 6, 2011, three people were killed and seven injured when a disgruntled employee opened fire at a cement plant. The gunman was armed with an AK-47 assault rifle and other firearms.

- Carson City, Nev.—On September 6, 2011, four people were killed and eight injured in a shooting at a restaurant. The gunman used an AK-47. Three of those killed were members of the Nevada National Guard.

- Tucson, Ariz.—On January 8, 2011, six were killed and 13 injured—including then-Congresswoman Gabrielle Giffords—when a gunman opened fire at a constituent meeting in a parking lot. The shooter used a handgun with a 33-round magazine; he was subdued only when he had to pause to reload.

“With respect to assault weapons, I see no need for Bushmasters in the hands of an individual person who might be deranged. ... How much are we really giving up if we said that this kind of weapon should not be readily available to anybody who wants to buy one?”

- Former Secretary of State Colin Powell, Meet The Press, January 13, 2013
Assault weapons and high-capacity magazines destroy families, communities

- Washington, D.C.—On March 30, 2010, four people were killed and six wounded in two drive-by shootings. The shooter used an AK-47.

- Minkler, Calif.—On February 25, 2010, two police officers were killed and another injured by a former security guard armed with an assault rifle and other firearms. Almost 400 rounds were fired in the shootout between police and the assailant.

- St. Louis, Mo.—On January 7, 2010, three people were killed and five wounded when a disgruntled employee armed with an AK-47 and high-capacity ammunition magazines entered his workplace and fired approximately 115 rounds. The employee had purchased the AK-47 the day before he committed this violence.

- Overtown, Fla.—On July 6, 2009, two people were killed and 10 injured when gunmen opened fire with an AK-47 and other weapons at a party.

- Oakland, Calif.—On March 21, 2009, four police officers were killed and another injured by a suspected rapist wielding an AK-47.

- Geneva County, Ala.—On March 10, 2009, 10 people were killed and six injured in a series of shootings involving an AR-15 assault rifle and other firearms. Victims included the shooter’s mother, grandmother, uncle and two cousins.

- Omaha, Neb.—On December 5, 2007, a gunman opened fire in a department store, killing eight and injuring five. The gunman, a mentally troubled young man, used an AKM assault rifle.

- Crandon, Wis.—On October 7, 2007, a gunman used an AR-15 assault rifle to kill six people and injure one at a homecoming party.

- Tyler, Texas—On February 24, 2005, a gunman opened fire in front of a courthouse, killing his wife and a bystander and wounding four others, including the shooter’s son. The shooter used a MAK90 assault weapon, a variant of the AK-47.

- Hayward, Wis.—On November 21, 2004, a gunman killed six hunters and wounded two others. The gunman used an SKS rifle and a 20-round magazine.

“In light of the tragedy in Newtown – and in Aurora, Tucson, Fort Hood, Virginia Tech, Columbine, Oak Creek, and so many more – we know that no more time can be wasted. Gun violence is taking an unacceptable toll on our society, in mass killings and in the constant day-to-day of senseless death. While we continue to pray for the families and friends of those who died, we must also support our prayers with action.”

Assault weapons have a record of success

In the years following the enactment of the 1994 ban, the number of crimes that involved assault weapons dropped:

- The use of assault weapons in crime declined by 70% nine years after the 1994 Assault Weapons Ban took effect, according to a study conducted for the Justice Department.

- A Justice Department study of the 1994 Assault Weapons Ban found that it was responsible for a 6.7% decrease in total gun murders, holding all other factors equal.

  o Source: Jeffrey A. Roth & Christopher S. Koper, “Impact Evaluation of the Public Safety and Recreational Firearms Use Protection Act of 1994,” The Urban Institute (March 1997).

- When Maryland imposed a more stringent ban on assault pistols and high-capacity magazines in 1994, it led to a 55% drop in assault pistols recovered by the Baltimore Police Department.
