18 TRAININGS AND PROVISIONS INTO CODES OF 19 CONDUCT OF ALL FEDERAL DEPARTMENTS
20 AND EXECUTIVE AGENCIES.

21 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

22 (1) Human trafficking is inimical to every Fed-
23 eral agency’s core values and inherently harmful and 24 dehumanizing.

1           (2) Through the adoption of a Code of Conduct,
2           Federal agencies hold their personnel to similar 3           standards that are required of contractors and sub-
4           contractors of the agency under Federal law.

5           (3) Human trafficking is a violation of human 6           rights and against Federal law.

7           (4) The United States Government seeks to 8           deter activities that would facilitate or support traf-
9           ficking in persons.

10          (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS ON IMPLEMENTATION OF 11 ANTI-TRAFFICKING-IN-PERSONS POLICIES.—It is the 12 sense of Congress that—

13           (1) beginning not later than 18 months after 14           the date of the enactment of this Act, the head of 15           every Federal agency should incorporate a module
16           on human trafficking into its staff training require-17           ments and menu of topics to be covered in the an-18           nual ethics training of such agency;

19           (2) such staff trainings should—

20                   (A) cover both labor and sex trafficking;

21                   (B) teach employees how to prevent, iden-
22                   tify, and report trafficking in persons;

23           (3) Federal agencies that already provide 24           counter trafficking-in-persons training for staff

1       should share their curricula with agencies that do
2       not have such curricula;

3               (4) the head of each agency should inform all
4       candidates for employment about the anti-trafficking
5       provisions in the Code of Conduct of the agency;

6               (5) employees of each Federal agency should 7       sign acknowledgment of the agency's Code of Con-
8       duct, which should be kept in the file of the em-9       ployee; and

10              (6) a violation of the Code of Conduct should 11       lead to disciplinary action, up to and including ter-
12       mination of employment.

13       (c) POLICY FOR EXECUTIVE BRANCH EMPLOYEES.—

14       The President shall take such steps as may be necessary
15       to ensure that each officer and employee (including tem-
16       porary employees, persons stationed abroad while working 17       for the United States, and detailees from other agencies
18       of the Federal Government) of an agency in the executive

22       ficking (as defined in section 103 of the Trafficking 23       Victims Protection Act of 2000 (22 U.S.C. 7102))
24       or labor trafficking while employed by the Govern-
25       ment in a full-time or part-time capacity;

1           (2) a requirement that all Federal personnel,
2 without regard to whether the person is stationed 3 abroad, be sensitized to human trafficking and the 4 ethical conduct requirements that prohibit the pro-
5 curement of trafficking in persons;

6           (3) a requirement that all such personnel be 7 equipped with the necessary knowledge and tools to 8 prevent, recognize, report, and address human traf-
9 ficking offenses through a training for new personnel 10 and through regular refresher courses offered every 11 2 years; and

12           (4) a requirement that all such personnel report
